Tips for being a super organized student

Posted 2 hours ago by Amy

I have always admired students who hand in their homework on time and never 21 to do it. Me, on the other hand... OK, I'm not good enough. I'm 22 at getting myself organized. But lately I've started keeping a small study 23. I write down 24 I need to do and when it needs to be done by. Then I write a reminder(提醒单) a few days before the date just in case. It's helpful. So 25 are your tips for getting organized? Post a comment below. I'm hoping we can share tips to teach us better study skills.

Good question, Amy. I 26 spend about five minutes at the end of the day 27 the desktop on my computer. I make a copy of important documents. I delete things I don't need any more and put everything useful into the 28 folder(文件夹). The most important thing is to start studying a few weeks before the 29 and not leave it 30 the night before! That's just common sense, I think.

Recently, a junior high school sent several students back home because they broke the school uniform(校服) rules. Should students wear school uniforms? The Young World magazine held a discussion on this topic.

Kennedy: The school uniform is very important, because it always reminds me that I am supposed to go out of my way to study hard. It also helps prevent school bullying(欺凌). If everyone wears the same clothes, it is impossible to laugh at other people's clothing.

Manson: The uniform has to be earned through efforts. Students should start school with no uniforms. As they make progress at school, they start wearing it. I always think children need to be proud of their schools. The uniform is important for that. So, make students earn it! If they don't perform well, they should not be allowed to get one.

Patrick: I can see the advantages of wearing school uniforms. They play a very important role in managing schools. However, a school should not depend heavily on uniforms to improve students' behaviors. Teaching them how to express themselves with confidence(信心) is more important.

Moorhead: In my opinion, kids don't have to wear uniforms. There should be more choices open to kids in education. They ought to develop their own independence and just be themselves. Their personalities would be expressed through their own clothes at school. And different dress could be one way of showing their understanding of beauty. Besides, they make the school lively and colorful.

() 33. In Manson's opinion, _____.

- A.students have the right to get school uniforms for free
- B.students should be encouraged to earn school uniforms
- C.students performing well needn't wear school uniforms
- D.students can wear school uniforms if they don't make progress

()34.According to Patrick, what is more important?

- A.Managing schools by uniforms.
- B.Improving students' behaviors.
- C.Helping students express themselves confidently.
- D.Getting good scores.

()35.We can learn from the text that _____.

- A.Kennedy can't stand school uniforms
- B.Moorhead is against school uniform rules

There is a long history of vocational education in the US. Dating back to colonial times, the government has supported programs to train skilled workers. It started out as a way to teach students to farm and work in industries. But as the American economy grew, so too has vocational training. Today, vocational education is usually called career and technical education, or CTE. Students in high schools and trade schools can earn degrees in many areas. They include nursing, engineering, accounting, biotechnologies, web design and auto mechanics. Career and technical education is different from traditional school because it is much more “hands-on”.
